

Customer Reviews of Bumps:

I didn't know much about Jekyll and Lutyens before I played the CD, and found the play enchanting. It is something I want to listen to again JF, Braintree

My friend JP. London said, 'Oh, isn't that attractive, I can't wait to listen to it', when I gave her one as a Christmas present.

It's beautiful and so interesting and we are already listening to it for the second time. M. and F. D. Baar, Switzerland

L, my wife, has found the CD very interesting and enjoyable, (she is doing some Jekyll research on a local garden). FM, Baldock

I am only too pleased to feedback: I just loved the story it took me back to the good old days of Radio 4 plays which I just loved. Please keep the same 'recipe' and make some more! AF, Sevenoaks, Kent

It will be a pleasure to give you feedback. I would recommend this CD for all who wish to sit down and imbibe the life of two remarkable people, a must for any garden lover and history buff. . Several commissions are referred to where the pair combined their obvious talents in house and garden most of which can still be viewed today by those wishing to visit our heritage CS, Gt. Maplestead, Essex

The CD's were packed very well and arrived undamaged one day after they were sent. A very efficient service. ER, Blagdon

I was amazed to receive 'Bumps' this morning, Xmas Eve. I left it so late to order that I certainly didn't expect to receive it this side of Christmas! Many thanks, I'm sure the recipient will be thrilled. JB, Surrey
